Summary of Incident:

On 10/11/2019, deputies were dispatched to report of a family disturbance. Upon arrival, deputies found the 21-year old male was extremely agitated and vandalizing his parents' home. The male had caused damage to the walls, broken glass and detached a door and broken the door into pieces. Deputies determined the subject needed to be taken to a psychiatric emergency facility. While attempting to detain the subject, he picked up a piece of wood and held it in a threatening manner. The subject then took an electrical cord and wrapped it around his hand to protect his hands while punching. The deputy removed his CEW from his holster, turned it on and pointed it at the subject. The display of the CEW gained the suspect's cooperation and the CEW was not deployed.

Injuries: No
Offense: 459 PC

Summary of Incident:

On 12/19/2019, deputies responded to a residence for a possible burglary in progress. The reporting party told deputies he woke up and found a subject he did not know or give permission to enter asleep on the couch in his house. Deputies entered the home and contacted the subject. Due to the severity of the crime and unknown demeanor of the suspect, one deputy drew his firearm to provide cover and one deputy drew his CEW and held it by his side. With the display of the weapons, the subject complied with the deputies' orders and was taken into custody without incident. The CEW was not deployed.

TYPE OF DEPLOYMENT:

CEW EFFECTIVE

Date: 12/27/2019
Case#: SO19-3818
Video: Yes
Injuries: No
Offense: Marin County Warrant, 148(a)(1) PC, 1203.2 PC

Summary of Incident:

On 12/27/2019, deputies responded to the residence of a subject who was on active Marin County Probation and who had an outstanding Marin County arrest warrant. The deputies knocked on the door and announced their presence but the subject refused to open the door. The deputies could hear the subject inside the apartment and were able to make entry into the apartment. Due to the warrant and the subject's initial lack of cooperation to commands, a deputy drew his CEW, activated it and entered the apartment with a key. The deputy pointed the CEW at the subject who then complied with deputies' commands and was taken into custody without further incident.
